

3 The 35th Annual CCCC Century!

You know this is one of the best rides in Wisconsin. We've done our best to plan interesting routes for riders of all abilities. You'll enjoy lightly traveled, scenic roads, well-stocked rest stops at a quiet park, a general store, and a bustling town square. Join us Sunday, August 26, 2018 for a great ride!

Hills, glades, vistas, grades...

SE Wisconsin's varied terrain awaits your wheels – great views, grassy meadows, rustling cornfields, sparkling streams, charming towns, smooth, quiet roads, green woodlands. There's something new to see around every turn as the miles roll by.

Road rules...

Show your consideration for yourself, fellow bicyclists and drivers. WEAR A HELMET (required), and ride sensibly. Remember to:

- Signal at turns
- Stop at all stop signs
- Ride on the right side of the road
- Ride single file when there is overtaking traffic
- Move your bike off the road when stopping

Do your part to make bicyclists welcome on the road!

Stay on the course...

All riders receive accurate cue sheets and maps to follow. Ask us anytime for help with directions or reading the Q-sheet. We work hard to plan safe and interesting routes for your enjoyment. Roads are checked and confirmed prior to ride day to avoid construction or road hazards.

Be ready to ride...

Our alert crew of sag drivers patrols all routes watching for bicyclists who need help. But, make sure your bicycle is road ready, tuned up and tires pumped. Get in some practice rides. Carry a spare tube or patch kit, and a pump. Pull off the road and flag a sag wagon if you need help. Give them the thumbs up sign if you're having a great time
