

The 36th Annual CCCC Century!

You know this is one of the best rides in Wisconsin. We've done our best to plan interesting routes for riders of all abilities. You'll enjoy lightly traveled, scenic roads, well-stocked rest stops at a quiet park, a general store, and a bustling town square. Join us Sunday, August 25, 2019 for a great ride! New this year will be the start of the ride. We will be starting from East Troy High School. Please consult the club website for the most up-to-date information.

Hills, glades, vistas, grades...

SE Wisconsin's varied terrain awaits your wheels – great views, grassy meadows, rustling cornfields, sparkling streams, charming towns, smooth, quiet roads, green woodlands. There's something new to see around every turn as the miles roll by.

Road rules...

Show your consideration for yourself, fellow bicyclists and drivers. WEAR A HELMET (required), and ride sensibly. Remember to:

Signal at turns

Stop at all stop signs

Ride on the right side of the road

Ride single file when there is overtaking traffic

Move your bike off the road when stopping

Do your part to make bicyclists welcome on the road!

Stay on the course...All riders receive accurate cue sheets and maps to follow. Ask us anytime for help with directions or reading the cue sheet. We work hard to plan safe and interesting routes for your enjoyment. Roads are checked and confirmed prior to ride day to avoid construction or road hazards.

Be ready to ride...Our alert crew of sag drivers patrols all routes watching for bicyclists who need help. But, make sure your bicycle is road ready, tuned up and tires pumped. Get in some practice rides. Carry a spare tube or patch kit, and a pump. Pull off the road and flag a sag wagon if you need help. Give them the thumbs up sign if you're having great time!
